Name:	Penelope Dodd (Penny)
Equestrian interest:	Showjumping and Eventing.
Previous Board / Committee experience:	Jumping Committee for 4 years (2008 to 2011)
Reason / objectives for interest in representing EWA on the Jumping WA Committee:	Having previously served on the Jumping Committee, I feel I may be useful with background knowledge on issues causing concern. I feel I can contribute a constructive, positive vision for the future of Jumping in WA
Equestrian history:	Ridden from age of 9, Founding & Life Member of Moonyoonooka PC. Foundation Member of GCEC. Actively competed Showjumping & Eventing 1970 to mid 1990's when injury prevented me continuing.  Since then, I've followed the officiating pathway with FEI accreditation as Jumping Judge & Steward, Eventing Steward & EADMCP Officer. Currently Australian & NZ Rep to IJOC.
Life/Business experience:	Self Employed BAS Agent, working with accounting software. Migrated from UK aged 9. Passionate about Equestrian Sports & fortunate to volunteer at London Olympics, Normandy WEG & Rio Olympics. Appointed FEI Official at 2018 Asian Games Jakarta, Inaugural Asian Equestrian Championships Thailand 2019 & Tokyo Olympics. Appointed Chief Steward at 2024 CCI 5* International Horse Trials Adelaide.
General comments:	With a sound background knowledge of Jumping in WA, combined with some international exposure and access to guidance from IJOC, I'm confident I can bring clear and positive vision to the Jumping Committee, moving forward into 2025 and beyond.
